

When I get mad, there are some things I can do instead of hitting. I can yell, "Stop that!"

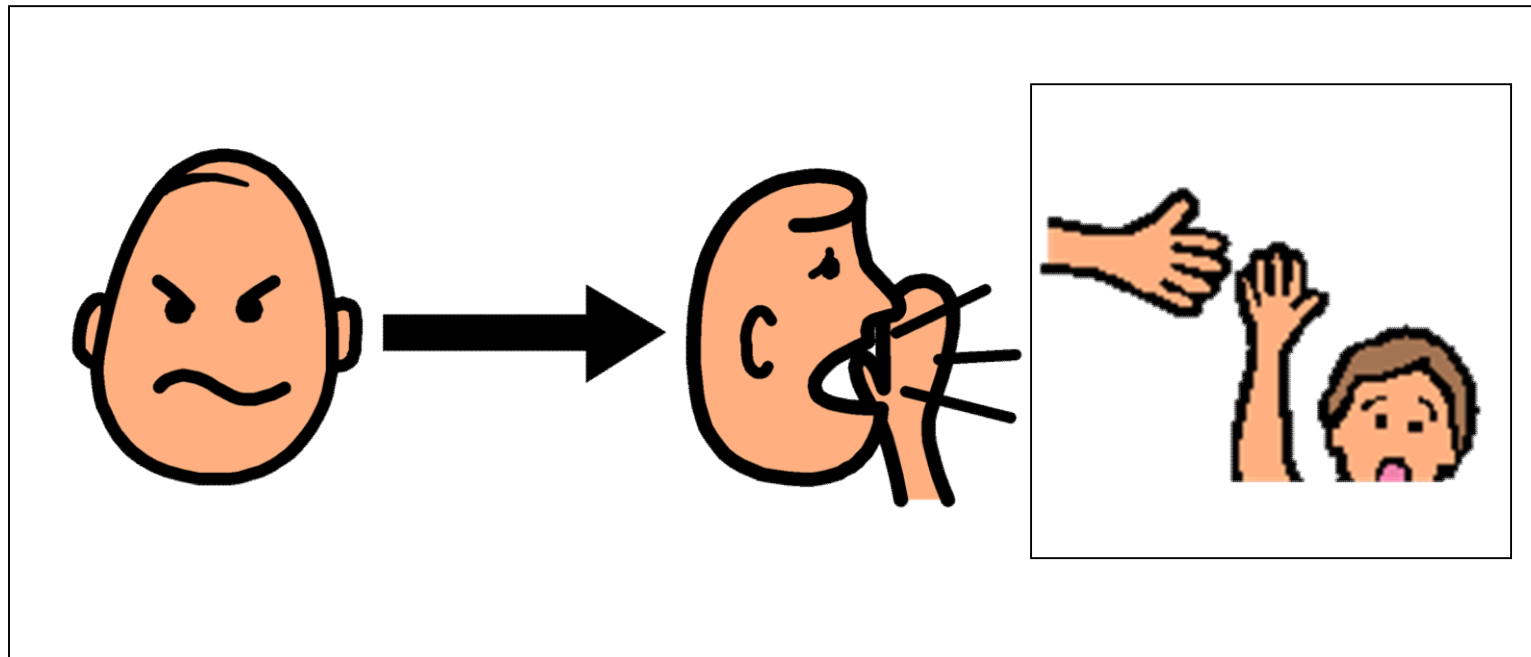

Or, when I get mad I can yell, "No!"

Or, when I get mad I can yell, "Leave me alone!"

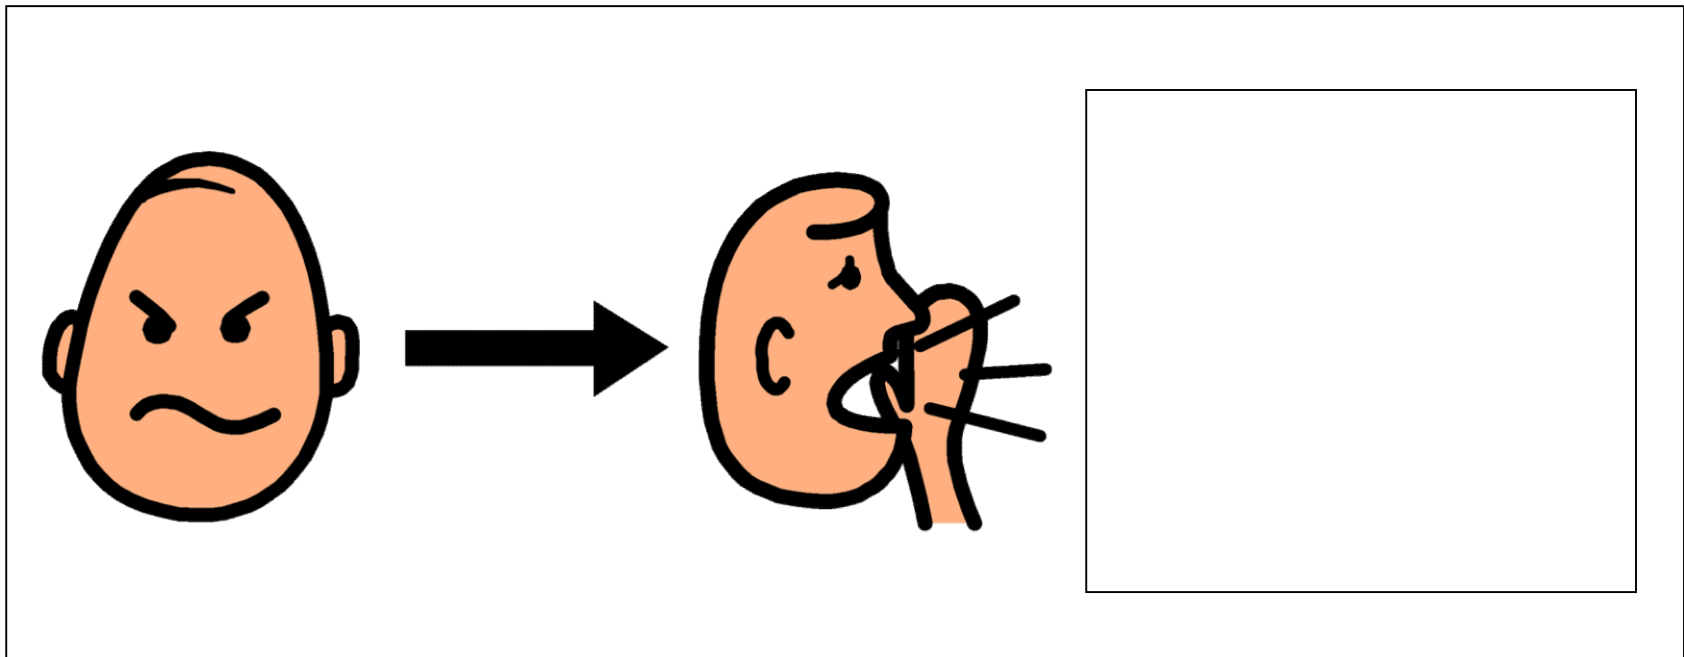

Or, when I get mad I can yell, "Teacher, help me!"

Will I use my hands to hit? No, I will give nice touches.

And when I get mad, I will remember my words and ye

And everything will be OK!

When I Get Mad

Sometimes I get really really mad.

When I get really mad, I want to hit people

But hitting people hurts them.
